1. What is going well for you in this class so far?

2. Do you have any specific suggestions that could improve your learning?

3. Any other comments about the learning environment and the class in general?