DID YOU KNOW?

SGA’s Hey Day is one of the most-loved traditions on campus and began when the student body united in welcoming veterans returning from World War II by pinning name tags on them outside of Langdon Hall. Students continue the tradition today by wearing name tags, saying “hey” to one another and enjoying a day of fun and entertainment.
For more events and ways to get involved, log on to AUinvolve at auburn.edu/auinvolve.

Did You Know?

At the end of the fall and spring semesters, students who have completed over 75 credit hours have the opportunity to be part of the Auburn Ring Tradition. Rings are placed under the curse of the Auburn seal and later dipped in the president’s fountain to remove the curse. Learn more at aub.ie/ringnight.
