Call for Scholarship Applications

25th Anniversary of the International Writing Across the Curriculum Conference

Auburn University | Auburn, Alabama

The 2018 International Writing Across the Curriculum (IWAC) Conference organizers are pleased to announce the availability of registration scholarships to support scholars and practitioners — national and international — who plan to attend the 2018 IWAC Conference in Auburn, Alabama, June 4-6, 2018, regardless of whether or not they will be presenting.

Application process and selection criteria:

Our intent is to encourage representatives from diverse disciplinary, geographical, and institutional contexts; therefore, reviewers will favor a variety of disciplines and contexts to enrich the conference.

The first consideration will be the quality of each application. In the event of numerous highly-competitive applications, reviewers will try to select a diverse group of national and international recipients.

Good candidates are people who, through their essays:

- demonstrate evidence of their commitment to WAC/WID work;
- explain how they would benefit from participating in this particular IWAC conference; and
- describe how this particular IWAC conference would be enriched by their participation.

Scholarships will not be awarded on the basis of described financial need. We assume this condition is met by all scholarship applicants.

Important Dates

Interested applicants must complete and submit the application by midnight U.S. Eastern time on Tuesday, October 31, 2017. The application form can be completed and submitted online at <http://bit.ly/2rwiPNa>.

Selections will be made by the IWAC Scholarship Committee by Wednesday, November 15, 2017. All applicants will be notified of their status via email, no later than November 20, 2017.

Scholarship recipients will be given a special code to register. The scholarship includes a waiver of the conference registration fee at the Early Bird rate. Fees for additional workshops and special events are not covered by the scholarship. No refunds are possible.
