Outstanding ePortfolio Award

The Office of University Writing is seeking nominations for the Fifth Annual Outstanding ePortfolio Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize exceptional ePortfolios created by Auburn University students.

Eligibility and Nomination

Auburn University faculty/staff members from all departments are invited to nominate up to two students (undergraduate and graduate) who have created distinguished ePortfolios. Students may also nominate themselves.

Submission Criteria

The following policies apply to nominations:

1. Eligible nominees include Auburn University undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in courses during the 2017 spring semester or during the 2017-2018 academic year.
2. Nomination forms (<http://ouw-auburn.outstanding-eportfolio-award.sgizmo.com/s3/>) must include a link to the nominee's ePortfolio.
3. The nominee acknowledges that submitted ePortfolios may be used for future education and training purposes within the Auburn University ePortfolio Project.

Selection Criteria

Nominations should be professional ePortfolios directed to an external audience. Nominations will be evaluated utilizing the ePortfolio Project rubric that is based on the four student learning outcomes of the project:

- Effective communication,
- Critical thinking through reflection,
- Visual literacy, and;
- Technical competency.

Recognition of Award Winners

A luncheon for the finalists, their guests, and their nominator will be hosted by Provost Bill Hardgrave.

Deadline for Nominations

The deadline for nominations is March 25, 2018. For more information about the Outstanding ePortfolio Award, visit www.auburn.edu/eportfolios/get-involved or contact us at ePortfolios@auburn.edu.
