Outstanding ePortfolio Award

The Office of University Writing is seeking nominations for the Second Annual Outstanding ePortfolio Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize exceptional ePortfolios created by Auburn University students.

Eligibility and Nomination
Auburn University faculty/staff members from all departments are invited to nominate up to two students (undergraduate and graduate) who have created distinguished ePortfolios. Students from all disciplines are eligible to apply and may also nominate their peers.

Submission Criteria
The following policies apply to nominations:

1. The nominee must be enrolled as an Auburn University undergraduate or graduate student during the 2014-2015 academic year.
2. Nomination forms (http://ouw-auburn.eportfolio-awards.sgizmo.com/s3/) must include:
   a faculty or peer nomination letter (300 words or less) that accompanies the official nomination form; and a link to the nominee’s ePortfolio.
3. The nominee acknowledges that submitted ePortfolios may be used for future education and training purposes within the Auburn University ePortfolio Project.

Selection Criteria
Nominations should be professional ePortfolios directed to an external audience. Nominations will be evaluated utilizing the ePortfolio Project rubric that is based on the four student learning outcomes of the project:

- Effective communication,
- Critical thinking through reflection,
- Visual literacy, and;
- Technical competency.

Recognition of Award Winners
A luncheon for the winners, their guests, and their nominator will be hosted by Provost Timothy Boosinger at the Auburn University Hotel and Conference Center on Tuesday, May 5, 2015.

Deadline for Nominations
The deadline for nominations is April 1, 2015. For more information about the Outstanding ePortfolio Award, visit www.auburn.edu/eportfolios/get-involved or contact us at ePortfolios@auburn.edu.
